60 MINUTES

- 07/02/00 "Suicide Or Murder?"- in March 1998 the body of Gordon Hess, a firefighter and a Captain in the National Guard, was found near the barracks in Fort Knox, Kentucky where he was taking part in annual military training. The Army ruled his death, the result of 26 stab wounds, a suicide. Despite evidence pointing to homicide found by investigators hired by Hess's widow Doreen and other experts, the Army still maintains that the wounds were self-inflicted. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Richard Greenberg) (OAD: 11/28/99)
 "Denzel"- a profile of Denzel Washington, one of America's top actors who now commands over $10 million per movie. (C: Ed Bradley -P: Ruth Streeter) (OAD: 01/09/00)
 "Haiti: Five Years And A Billion Dollars Later"- a report on Haiti five years after the U.S. sent troops and advisors there to restore the government of President Jean Bertrand Aristede, focusing on the country's U.S-funded justice reform program. Includes an interview with former Justice Department attorney Maurice Geiger, and a visit to the National Penitentiary where over 1000 pre-trial detainees, most without access to lawyers, are being held in deplorable conditions for lengthy periods. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Walt Bogdanich) (OAD: 11/14/99)
 Andy Rooney Topic: "Visitors"- Andy looks at tourists (OAD: 06/07/98)
- 07/09/00 "Harry Potter"- an interview with British writer Joanne Rowling whose children's novels have been responsible for her transformation from a poor single mother to the world's most successful author. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman, Lizzie Weinreb) (OAD: 09/12/99)
 "Need Cash?"- critics say that Florida and a number of other states have, in effect, legalized loan sharking by passing legislation exempting the automobile title lenders from usury laws. As a result people in desperate need of money and without credit, find themselves paying exorbitant interest rates and often having their cars repossessed. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine) (OAD: 01/02/00)
 "Adopt Me"- report on the controversy over "adoption fairs" where child welfare agencies introduce hard-to-place children to prospective parents.
 Critics say it's a cruel practice; proponents claim that it's a "special needs" child's best chance. (C: Morley Safer - P: Denise Schrier Cetta) (OAD: 01/09/00)
 Andy Rooney Topic: "Inventions" - 10 best unimportant inventions (OAD:
 02/06/00)

07/16/00 "Hitler's Pope?"- John Cornwell, author of Hitler's Pope, claims that in an apology issued by Pope John Paul II last week, the Pontiff omitted any mention of Pope Pius XII who, during the Holocaust, did nothing to intervene in the Nazi extermination of Jews and who, for this reason, should not be a candidate for sainthood. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Jeanne Solomon Langley) (OAD: 03/19/00)

"Kevin Spacey"- an interview with Kevin Spacey who has been nominated for this year's Academy Award for best actor. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Jay Kernis) (OAD: 02/20/00)

"The Voice Of The Farmer"- the American Farm Bureau, a non-profit, tax exempt agency founded in the early 1900s, claims that its mission is to help small family farmers. These same family farmers, who have over the years been supporting the agency with their dues, charge that the Farm Bureau is instead supporting the very agribusiness giants that are running them out of business. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Walt Bogdanich) (OAD: 04/09/00)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Annoying Phone Calls"- Andy has an idea on how to handle sales calls (OAD: 12/13/98)

07/23/00 "Autopsy"- studies show that nearly 40 percent of the listed causes of deaths in U.S. hospitals are wrong. Experts including Dr. George Lundberg, the editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association say that in order to improve the quality of medical care, hospitals must start doing more autopsies which would identify these mistakes. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Walt Bogdanich) (OAD: 10/11/98)

"The Scuffed Halls Of Ivy - Emory University"- Professor Jeffrey Sonnenfeld of Emory University business school in Atlanta was accused of vandalizing the university, based on a security camera film which allegedly showed him putting scuff marks on the walls of a school corridor. Sonnenfeld, who not only lost his job at Emory but the offer of a position as dean at Georgia Tech business school, is suing Emory for slander and for destroying his reputation. (C: Morley Safer - P: Catherine Olian) (OAD: 10/10/99)

"TB"- scientists thought they had eradicated tuberculosis 50 years ago but now certain strains of the bacteria have grown resistant to drugs that were previously effective in treating the disease. In certain parts of the former Soviet Union TB has reached epidemic proportions and there is serious concern that it could spread to other parts of the world including the U.S. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Leslie Cockburn) (OAD: 10/03/99)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Envelopes" - things that are written on envelopes (OAD: 04/11/99)

07/30/00 "Dikembe Mutombo"- a profile of NBA superstar Dikembe Mutombo who is raising money to build a new hospital in his hometown, the Congolese city of Kinshasa, Central Africa. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II) (OAD: 03/05/00)
 "Lord Of The Manor"- an interview with Robert Gardiner, whose claim to Gardiner's Island, situated off the coast of the Hamptons in Long Island, N.Y., dates back 360 years to the reign of King Charles of England. The island, one of the most valuable pieces of undeveloped real estate in the country, is the object of a bitter feud between Gardiner and his niece Alexandra Gardiner Creel and her husband Robert Goelet, who stand to inherit the island on Gardiner's death. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine) (OAD: 11/07/99)
 "The Columbine Effect"- a report on the controversy over the right of disabled children to attend public schools, focusing on Lance Landers, a 16-year-old Alabama boy whose violent behavior caused him to be expelled from the entire Alabama school system. His mother is suing to have him re-admitted to public school, claiming that he is a troubled child who needs help and an education. (C: Morley Safer -P: Catherine Olian) (OAD: 03/05/00)
 Andy Rooney Topic: "Nuts"- what you find in a can labelled mixed nuts (OAD: 12/28/97)

60 MINUTES II

07/04/00 "Sorry About That"- twenty years after they held 52 Americans hostage for 444 days at the U.S. embassy in Iran, the people responsible admit it was a bad idea but have yet to apologize. Includes interviews with ex-hostages Captain Chuck Scott, Barry Rosen and Bruce Laingden, and some of the former students who took them prisoner. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihailovich) (OAD: 11/02/99)
 "The Ferry Is Coming"- a report on the controversy in Alabama concerning the return of ferry service between the largely black town of Gee's Bend and the city of Camden. Newspaper owner and former segregationist Hollis Curl claims that it will make the black community less isolated. Critics claim that his motives are purely political. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Joel Bernstein) (OAD: 02/08/00)
 "A Different Kind of Family"- a profile of singer Melissa Etheridge, who with her companion, filmmaker Julie Cypher, is raising two children fathered through artificial insemination by rock legend David Crosby. (C: Charlie Rose - P: John Hamlin) (OAD: 11/18/99)
 "Uncommon Sense"- bottled water (C: Jimmy Tingle) (OAD: 02/29/00)

07/11/00 PREEMPTION

07/18/00 PREEMPTION

07/26/00 "Killing Time"- an interview with Shawn Berry, the third defendant in the dragging death of a black man in Jasper, Texas. Bill King and Russell Brewer, the other two defendants, were tried and sentenced to death. Berry, who faces a similar sentence, claims that he was an unwilling participant in the crime and that fear kept him from trying to stop the murder or going to the police after it occurred. (C: Dan Rather - P: Mary Mapes) (OAD: 09/28/99)
 "Miracle Man"- an interview with Lance Armstrong, a Texas-born cyclist who overcame testicular cancer to win the Tour de France. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihailovich) (OAD: 05/23/00)
 "Santana"- an interview with Carlos Santana whose album, "Supernatural," is up for 11 Grammys. (C: Charlie Rose - P: John Hamlin) (OAD: 02/22/00)

48 HOURS

- 07/03/00 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "A Family's Shame"- The broadcast presents accounts of people who suffer the reality that a close relative has committed murder and endure the struggle between family ties and civic responsibility. Includes reports on: Molly McIntyre, a police officer whose son Patrick strangled a woman and then set fire to her apartment to destroy evidence; Ken and Lois Robison, two Texas schoolteachers whose son Larry murdered five people and now is scheduled for execution; and David Kaczynski, who turned in his brother Ted, the Unabomber, who was responsible for a series of bombings that killed three people and injured 23 more. David, a social worker, and his wife Linda, a college professor, are struggling to somehow right his brother's wrongs. (C: Susan Spencer, Bill Lagattuta, Troy Roberts -Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Lisa Freed, Gail Zimmerman) (OAD: 01/13/00 as "Killer In The Family")
- 07/05/00 "Fame" - looks at the lengths people will go to achieve celebrity including reports on: Darva Conger, an emergency room nurse whose wedding was televised on "Who Wants to Marry A Millionaire?"; 12-year-old singer Sammie Bush who has signed a six-year contract with Capitol Records; Jenna Lewis, a single mother and aspiring actress and Dr. Sean Kennif, a neurologist, both of whom appeared on the CBS-TV series SURVIVOR; and a group of friends from Philadelphia, calling themselves "Whassup?," who achieved notoriety by appearing in a Budweiser commercial. (C: Peter Van Sant, Troy Roberts, Steve Hartman, Richard Schlesinger - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Paul LaRosa, Jay Young, Tom Forman, Josh Gelman, Marc Goldbaum, Taigi Smi)
- 07/06/00 "A House Divided"- focuses on polygamy which, although illegal in the U.S., is being practiced by thousands of Americans and is on the increase. Included are reports on: Laura Chapman who escaped from a life of polygamy and is helping to free others; two teenage girls from the Salt Lake City area who ran away secretly to avoid marriages to older men who already have other wives; polygamy expert Janet Bennion of Utah Valley State College; and visits to two polygamous Utah families who face the disapproval of local officials and neighbors. (C: Erin Moriarty, Susan Spencer, Troy Roberts - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Doug Longhini, Deirdre Cohen, Josh Yager, Peter Henderson) (OAD: 11/18/99)
- 07/10/00 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "Impossible Mission"- despite his claim of innocence, Crosley Green has been on Florida's death row for over nine years awaiting execution for robbing, kidnapping and killing a twenty-two year old white man in a Florida orange grove. Prompted by the faith of Nan Webb, an anti-death penalty activist, Chicago private investigator Paul Ciolino brought together a team of five prominent private investigators to try to track down the real killer. The team, working free of charge, discovered evidence that a number of key witnesses in the case lied and there was no evidence to link Crosley to the scene of the crime. Florida's Department of Law Enforcement has ordered new DNA testing, including a re-examination of crime scene fingerprints, so far unidentified, but it is yet to be determined whether Crosley will be granted a new trial. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Doug Longhini, Marc Goldbaum, Joe Halderman) (OAD: 11/01/99 as "Reasonable Doubt" - includes an update - update P: Linda Martin, Lisa Freed)

- 07/13/00 "Weighing The Risks"- surveys the latest weight loss techniques for dieters who are obese or consider themselves to be obese, including reports on: the Fobi pouch operation, a controversial surgical procedure that drastically reduces the size of the stomach; Ray Audette who has written a book called NeanderThin about a new approach to high-protein diets; Xenical, a drug that doesn't curb a dieter's appetite but blocks the digestion of 30% percent of fat eaten; and a program at Louisiana State University Hospital for obese children and their families. (C: Bill Lagattuta, Peter Van Sant, Susan Spencer, Troy Roberts - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Paul F. Ryan, Dianne M. Ronnau, Mary Noonan Robichaux) (OAD: 01/20/00)
- 07/20/00 "Family Feuds"- profiles a diverse group of family members from across the U.S. who have been involved in feuds with their relations. Includes reports on: the Tinney family whose Newport home, Belcourt Castle, is the focus of a dispute involving Kevin Koellisch, a 37-year-old plumber who was adopted by 80-year-old matriarch Ruth Tinney; a barbecue restaurant in Lockhart, Texas owned by Rick Schmidt whose landlord and sister, Nina, raised his rent 126 percent; comedian and Family Feud host Louie Anderson, the most successful of eleven siblings, who has produced a documentary about his family called "Complicated Laughter"; and the Kirk brothers, loggers in Unity, Maine who were involved in a bitter dispute over a piece of equipment called a skidder. (C: Susan Spencer, Harold Dow, Bernard Goldberg, Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Reid Collins, Jr. - P: Tom Forman, Dianne M. Ronnau, Mary Noonan Robichaux) (OAD: 01/06/00)
- 07/27/00 "Tornado"- about 1000 dangerous tornadoes hit the United States each year, affecting more lives than hurricanes and inflicting just as much damage -- with even higher speeds. 48 HOURS reports on the devastation these storms leave behind and the powerful fascination tornadoes hold for scientists and thrill seekers, including reports on: two families caught in the path of the worst tornado outbreak in Oklahoma history which struck on May 3, 1999.; storm chasers, adventurers from as far away as Europe who are spending vacations chasing tornadoes; and Ken Bird, a photographer whose mission was to collect and restore photographs blown away by the Oklahoma tornado.
